

Safer Recruiting (staff)

N.B. Please also consult the 'Information for Prospective Staff' paper and the 'Procedure for Appointing Staff'

Introduction:

Ballard is committed to recruiting the highest quality staff who are best suited to the role for which they have applied. However, we are also committed to recruiting only those who are fully suitable to work with children and young adults. We will comply fully with Government legislation and Education Department policies in this area.

Advertising:

Staff adverts will always stress our commitment to safe recruiting and the need for an enhanced vetting and barring check and clearance.

Interviewing:

All shortlisted applicants will be interviewed by a member of the Leadership Team who will be Safer Recruitment trained.

We will carry out the following checks (as noted on the interview question sheets):

a) Checklist for interviewers

- Verification of identity and address (e.g. driver's licence; utility bill)
- Original certificates of qualifications
- Current vetting and barring clearance (if relevant)
- Names / contact details of referees (if references not already taken up) and clarify that they will be asked about any disclosures

b) Considerations for interviewers

- Look for any discrepancies (e.g. gaps) in the employment record and ask for clarification
- Evaluate against the person specification
- Evaluate against the job specification
- Don't ask hypothetical questions as they allow for theoretical answers: use competence-based questions which allow the candidate to explain how he / she has responded to a particular issue, situation and policy
- At all times assess the candidate's suitability to work with children

c) Referees: at least two references will be taken up prior to the confirmation of any appointment. Referees will be asked for confirmation that they know of no reason under the Children Act why a staff member should not be appointed.

d) All successful candidates will have a Safeguarding Meeting with the Headmaster.
